Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1373 (2001) concerning counter-terrorism

10:00 to 13:00 Informal meeting (closed) Conference Room 7

On behalf of the Chair of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1373 (2001) concerning counter-terrorism, the Counter-Terrorism Committee Executive Directorate (CTED) will hold an informal meeting with Member States of the Asia-Pacific Group on "countering the activities of ISIL (Da'esh), Al-Qaida and associated individuals, groups, undertakings and entities to incite and recruit individuals to commit terrorist acts".

The Council's presidential statement of 11 May 2016 (S/PRST/2016/6) requested the Counter-Terrorism Committee, in close consultations with CTED and other relevant United Nations bodies and international and regional organizations, in particular the Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force (CTITF) Office, as well as interested Member States, to present a proposal to the Council by 30 April 2017 for a "comprehensive international framework" to effectively counter, in compliance with international law, the ways that ISIL, Al-Qaida and associated individuals and entities use their narratives to encourage, motivate, and recruit others to commit terrorist acts.

In this regard, the objective of the informal meeting is to share initial findings and seek further input from Member States of the Asia Pacific Group on the development of a comprehensive international framework pursuant to S/PRST/2016/6. Similar meetings will be organized for other regional groups during January 2017.

Communications to the President of the Security Council

Communications addressed to the President of the Security Council should be delivered to the Office of the President of the Council (e-mailed dpa-scsb3@un.org; Room S-2472; fax 1 (917) 367-0406). For queries, please call 1 (212) 963-5258.

Speakers in the Security Council are advised that providing in advance copies of prepared statements which they intend to read out in the Council greatly facilitates the work of the Secretariat by permitting a sufficient number of copies to be distributed to all meeting participants and by assisting interpreters, verbatim reporters and press officers in maintaining the quality of the product delivered.

Both interpretations and verbatim records rely upon the statement actually delivered, but copies of texts help interpreters to correctly render details and nuances and help verbatim reporters to produce the written record more quickly. Speakers are therefore encouraged, whenever possible, to provide copies of their statements, as early as possible in advance of delivery, to the Conference Room Officer in the Chamber.

Delegations are kindly requested to make 40 copies for minimum distribution to Council members and relevant services, and 200 additional copies for general distribution in the Security Council Chamber. Delegations wishing to make statements available for the media are kindly requested to deliver 50 copies to the Media Documents Centre (e-mail mdc@un.org; tel. 1 (212) 963-7166; Room S-0220).
